FACE TO FACE
8 Healing After Horror. Susan Maas Joseph Westermeyer, M.D., Ph.D., helps survivors recover from the psychological wounds of trauma.

PERSPECTIVES

FEATURE STORIES

22 Easing the Grief at Ground Zero. Renee Whinsant Two Minnesota mental health professionals have lent their time and expertise to comfort distressed New Yorkers.

24 Caring for the Caregiver. Jane Schwanke As a health care provider, you care for the young and minister to the old; you care the sick and heal the injured. But here’s the million-dollar question: Who is taking care of you?

GLOBAL VIEW
28 Great Needs. Linda Cullen Afghan refugees in Peshawar, Pakistan, seek medical care at understaffed clinics that make do with minimal supplies.

32 Foreign Exchanges. Robert Levin, M.D. A Minnesota physician treats everything from shrapnel wounds to viper bites in the midst of civil war in South Sudan.

CLINICAL & HEALTH AFFAIRS

MEDICINE LAW & POLICY
42 Language Interpreter Services in Outpatient Settings: Responsibilities and Resources Christina Rich, J.D. Physicians and clinics have a legal obligation to meet the needs of patients who are not proficient in English.

BOOK REVIEW